Long-serving Leaders Inducted to NJLM Mayors' Hall of Fame

Trenton, NJ (November 20, 2023). At the 108th Annual New Jersey League of Municipalities Conference in Atlantic City, then League President Ray Heck and officials from throughout New Jersey honored the most recent inductees to the Mayors' Hall of Fame.

The League established the Mayors' Hall of Fame to recognize mayors who have served for over 10, 20, or 30 years. "Serving as mayor for decades is a commitment of time and energy over the long haul. These mayors have sincerely made a long-term commitment as leaders to guide and improve their communities. They have helped their communities grow and change over the years, and have worked to make a positive impact," said League Executive Director Michael Cerra. "We congratulate them on their deserved recognition."

The following members of the 29th induction class of the Mayors' Hall of Fame were honored during a special ceremony during the Mayors' Lunch Briefing on Wednesday, November 15 in Atlantic City.
