

July 7 Conference Connections

Exploring the Conference Website: Health & Safety Plan and Code of Conduct.

This year the League has created a new and improved Conference Site, we invite you to visit today and start planning for the 106th Annual League Conference slated for Nov. 16-18 in Atlantic City.

Even before you register, the website is a great information source. Upon entering the site, the League's Health & Safety Plan and Code of Conduct are available to review.

In accordance with the CDC, NJ Department of Health, and the Atlantic City Convention Center GBAC STAR certification protocols, the League is creating a plan to keep all conference participants healthy, safe, and comfortable. Each attendee plays a critical role in the success of this plan and we depend upon everyone to create a safe environment. e following are the highlights of the plan, the details will be posted online at www.njlm.org/conference and sent to each attendee.

The plan is subject to change depending on current recommendations and requirements in November.

The Code of Conduct outlines the expectations for all those who participate in League meetings and events, as well as the consequences for unacceptable behavior.

This policy applies to any "participant" at League of Municipalities (NJLM) events, including but not limited to staff, contractors, vendors, exhibitors, venue staff, members, presenters, and all attendees. We expect all participants to abide by this Code of Conduct in all venues at NJLM meetings and events, including ancillary events and official and unofficial social gatherings.

The League intends to maintain a welcoming professional atmosphere in all aspects of the Annual League Conference. To that end, conduct that violates this Code should not be tolerated by anyone who witnesses it, or is subjected to it.

Professional conduct includes using care in words that you choose. Harassment, even harassment that a person believes is a "joke," is unacceptable behavior. Sexist, racist, and other exclusionary jokes are unacceptable and offensive to those around you. Excessive swearing and offensive jokes are not professional behavior and violate the League code of conduct. Retaliation for reporting harassment is a violation of the Code of Conduct.