

Office of the Mayor

Newton, New Jersey

Proclamation

William G. Dressel, Jr.

New Jersey State League of Municipalities

WHEREAS, William G. Dressel, Jr. first joined the New Jersey State League of Municipalities staff in 1974, proving to be a valuable asset through the years, then became Executive Director in 1995; and

WHEREAS, Bill, as Executive Director, has led the League through several service expansions, including leading the League's Annual Conference each year, which is the largest gathering of local officials in the nation; and

WHEREAS, under Bill's direction the League acquired and rehabilitated the dilapidated Ferdinand W. Roebling, Sr. Mansion located at 222 West State Street in Trenton, which now serves as the League's Headquarters; and

WHEREAS, Bill has received numerous awards and accolades through the years including the Sarah P. Fiske Award in 2008, the John G. Stutz Award in 1999 and the Rutgers Award for public service to New Jersey for Excellence in 2007, promoting and supporting municipal government, to name a few;

NOW THEREFORE, WE, the Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Newton, hereby proclaim our appreciation and thanks to William G. Dressel, Jr. for his dedication and service to New Jersey government for the past 41 years, and wish him a long and healthy retirement.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and caused this seal to be affixed.
